

Nugget Bowl Torched

sku: 7.90731

The iron "nuggets" of this collection are reclaimed scraps of metal from the factory floor which have been repurposed with great imagination. The individual pieces have been welded together in irregular shapes, then torched. Recycling at its best! | The organic shape of the Nugget Bowl lends itself to the construction of individually welded pieces of iron. Flat bottom. A hurricane and mirror are also available in the Nugget collection.
