Christian Lacroix Herbariae Small Butter Dish

sku: 21133507

The new porcelain tableware collection by Christian Lacroix Maison and Vista Alegre emanates neo-classical freshness.The subtle lines of Herbariae are inspired by 5 flowers. The poppy, narcissus, lotus flower, dahlia and thistle. Selected for the power of their evocative, yet delicate, beauty, they adorn each piece of this new opus. Drawn within stylised borders and edged with a black line, the images are inspired by herbarium collections and antique botanical prints.Herbariae was created around two colour themes, to be combined as desired. The first is a black and white duo, highlighting positive and negative in turn, creating a graphic table that is all about contrast. The second combines soft pinks and yellows with a delicate celadon green and stylish peacock blue, in the style of a water colour painting, a nod to the Houses iconic Sol y Sombra collection, that will embellish your table with the lightness of spring.
