

Industry 5.5-qt Stainless Steel Dutch Oven

sku: 48324

Designed to meet the demands of busy restaurant kitchens, the Industry 5.5-qt Stainless Steel Dutch Oven cooks up delicious one-pot meals, succulent roasts, savory stews and comforting chili. Thanks to its chef-friendly features - like a dripless pouring rim and ergonomic, stay-cool handles - this premium pot is a pleasure to cook with. Boasting a sturdy 5-ply construction and Demeyere's signature flat base technology, this versatile Dutch Oven provides superior heat conduction, retention and distribution for perfectly cooked food. The large surface area and straight sides allow you to conveniently brown, braise and simmer in the same pot. The revolutionary Silvinox surface treatment removes impurities, maintaining a flawless, silvery white finish that looks new even after years of use. Demeyere cookware offers the ultimate stainless steel experience. Beloved by chefs worldwide, this high-performance Belgian-made brand brings professional quality into your home kitchen. Each piece features expert engineering, exquisite design, and impressive cooking results. See how stunning stainless steel can be. Demeyere Industry 5.5-qt Stainless Steel Dutch Oven
