

Industry 12.5-inch Stainless Steel Fry Pan with Helper Handle

sku: 48632

Designed to meet the demands of busy restaurant kitchens, the Industry Stainless Steel Fry Pan cooks up stellar steaks and stir-fry dishes. Thanks to its chef-friendly features - including a dripless pouring rim and an ergonomic stay-cool handle - this premium pan is a pleasure to cook with. Boasting a 5-ply construction that includes a thick aluminum core, this fry pan promotes perfect browning, searing and frying - enjoy caramelized pork chops and crisp potatoes. Demeyere's signature flat base technology ensures superior heat conduction, retention, and distribution with no hot spots. The revolutionary Silvinox surface treatment removes impurities, maintaining a flawless, silvery white finish that looks like new even after years of use. Demeyere cookware offers the ultimate stainless steel experience. Beloved by chefs worldwide, this high-performance Belgian-made brand brings professional quality into your home kitchen. Each piece features expert engineering, exquisite design, and impressive cooking results. See how stunning stainless steel can be.
