Proudly made in France, Staub has been the benchmark for premium cast iron cookware since 1974. The Folding Grill Pan lets you enjoy flame-grilled flavors in the comfort of your kitchen. Its collapsible handle can be removed for oven use or folded when storing. Lighter than a cast iron handle, the folding grill handle is made from stainless steel and covered in silicone for a comfortable grip and easy maneuvering. The pan's raised sides prevent juices from spilling while deep interior ridges impart picture-perfect grill marks. They also encourage healthier cooking, by elevating food so that it doesn't cook in its excess fat. The signature textured Black matte surface boasts exceptional browning and searing while ensuring food doesn't stick. Savor succulent steaks, juicy burgers, and stellar salmon. Grilling has never been so effortless.
