Beloved by professional and home chefs alike, Staub has poured its cookware expertise into a new line of kitchen tools. Exquisite and ergonomic, Staub Tools includes a full range of kitchen essentials that put the pleasure in cooking. Each one is contoured to fit the hand, pot, and bowl perfectly so that you can effortlessly stir stews, skim soups, and flip steaks. Plus, they are safe for use on all cookware surfaces, including nonstick. Each tool is made from long-lasting, Black matte silicone, as easy-to-clean material that is highly resistant to high temperatures. To compliment the sleek silicone, the handles are crafted from eco-friendly Acacia wood, a smooth wood that feels good in the hand. Their handy hanging loops ensure easy storage. Due to the natural variations in the wood grain, no spoon or spatula are alike. Each one is special - just as your everyday cooking tool ought to be.
