

Seed Beaded Pillow in Gold and Black

sku: NW7.90015

For hundreds of years artisans have turned to natural forms for design inspiration, color direction, and pattern direction. In the Southwest, Native American ceramic artists, basket makers, weavers, and painters give new expression to these forms and apply them on variety of both utilitarian and decorative objects and textiles. The graphic and modern designs defining these beaded pillows comes from the dramatic landscape and natural world found in the Southwest.
