

Leather Tool Pouch - Dark Brown

sku: WL-POU-13

New from Witloft and the perfect addition to many other chef's essentials in their collection. The Leather Tool Pouch is designed to store your chef tools, knives, spoons, tweezers, scissors, pens and much more! The Leather Tool Pouch is a great accompaniment to our main knife rolls and can be wrapped securely together ensuring your tools won't fall out. Please note that this leather pouch is primarily designed for tool storage and not suitable for storing the bigger chef's knives. In case of storing your small knives we suggest using one of our knife protectors with each knife you put in, for optimal security.
