

Roger Stool - Brown

sku: 9125U

The Roger Stool's strength and simplicity highlight the beautiful suar wood used to craft it. It pairs nicely with any of our teak tables for dining or works well as a side table next to your favorite lounge chair. Made from plantation grown suar wood which is a fast growing and non endangered tropical hardwood from Indonesia. Suar is a beautifully colored wood with natural variations from piece to piece. With a circular seat resting on three legs, each stool has unique grains and lines. In addition to a dining stool, Roger fits well as a small side table or in the living room as an extra seat. Sika-Design holds the ISO 14001 certification which is the international standard for Environmental Responsibility.
