

Paris Chair - Natural

sku: AJ-11-SU

The Paris chair was designed by Arne Jacobsen and is handmade of Indonesian sustainable rattan. The chair is made in the color natural, which is original and suitable for every occasion. The fine bindings in the seat and back are made by skilled wicker workers. The Paris chair was the first chair the famous Arne Jacobsen designed, even before graduating as an architect. In 1925 it was presented at the Paris-Art-Deco exhibition and won a silver medal, hence the name of the Paris Chair. In France, he subsequently saw the "Le Corbusier's L'esprit Nouveau" pavilion, which inspired his following work. In 1929 he won a gold medal for his ultra-modern concept of "The House of Future". The house was built for the exhibition and cemented Arne Jacobsen as one of the most visionary and progressive Danish architects of his time. The Paris chair is revolutionary for the history of the wicker furniture. The lounge chair contributes a natural element in the living room or in a holiday home. Each chair is handmade using the finest Manau & Tohiti rattan. Rattan is strong, lightweight, flexible, and durable. Rattan is a natural climbing plant that grows in the Indonesian rainforest, without disturbing the existing structure and balance in the rainforest. Iconic designs to be a decorative piece in almost any décor. Sika-Design holds the ISO 14001 certification which is the international standard for Environmental Responsibility.
