

Madison Coffee Table - Brass

sku: HLS-300-803

With its bold architectural presence and industrial form, the Madison Coffee Table is visually captivating. Its monolithic body, a sharp-angled interpretation of the waterfall silhouette, is rendered in brass cladding with a darkened antique finish, and boasts a built-in geometric pattern thanks to a series of constructed, linear recesses. An elaborate hand-hammered design on its surface provides decorative flair and tactile interest—an arrangement of texture which creates a paisley effect. The Madison can add structured shape in a softly decorated living room or complement modern, industrial schemes. Place one in the center of a sitting area, or pair two for a dramatic impression.
