

Mccartney Console - Gray

sku: MND-400-486

Modern art meets luxurious design. The Mccartney Console is inspired by the iconic works of Piet Mccartney, reimagining the geometric grids of his paintings in plush hair-on-hide. The sumptuously tactile patches are stitched together in a bold, bricklike pattern, colored in varying shades of gray for a strikingly contemporary look. Its sleek and sharp silhouette is softened by its unique materials, including an underside richly draped in soft black felt. Surprising textures, innovative craftsmanship, and an artful aesthetic make the Mccartney a truly stand-out furnishing that radiates upscale glamour. Allow it to add a pop of visual interest in a minimalist decor scheme, or play up its lavish look in rooms where more is more.
