

Montana Armchair - Natural

sku: ODT-555-1034

Softness and structure are delivered in equal measure in the Montana Armchair, a comfortable piece to show off as an accent or use as a set around a dining table. Wrapped in head-to-toe natural linen with a subtle herringbone design, the Montana radiates quiet elegance with a textural nod to the organic. The gentle curves and fluffiness of its silhouette are anchored by four rounded legs, capped in bronze. The angled positioning of the two back legs recall mid-century modern design, giving the piece a retro aesthetic that's timelessly chic. Curl up with a book or sit back and enjoy a meal with friends and family. No matter where you choose to place the Montana, its cosmopolitan presence is sure to impress.
