

Montrose Armchair - Natural

sku: OSL-555-98

Modern design rooted in rustic charm—the Montrose Armchair is a beautiful embodiment of mid-century Scandinavian aesthetics. Our craftsmen uphold the ideals of function and comfort, crafting a stem-bent frame of solid oak with a curved back for effortless support. The Montrose's unique profile is marked by lightness and simplicity, though in signature Scandinavian style, it remains connected to nature. A limed finish from its framework back to its subtly tapered stretchers highlights the natural grain of the wood, while a hand-fashioned rope seat adds more organic texture and appeal. Its cool minimalism makes it a wonderful accent seat in contemporary spaces, or a way to update classic country homes as a set around a dining table.
